

GPPL Hosts Second Annual Pajama Ball

For immediate release

December 1st, 2023

The Grande Prairie Public Library's second annual Pajama Ball will take place on Saturday, December 16th from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm. Patrons are encouraged to don their finest pajamas and come out for an afternoon of cookie decorating, crafts, story time, and a special musical performance by renowned children's performer Mary Lambert. Cookies and decorating supplies were generously donated by New Horizon Co-op.

"Our first Pajama Ball was very well attended and we are very excited to be offering it again this year," says Bailey Randolph, Head of Children's and Teen Services. "We are hoping to have the Pajama Ball become an annual community tradition that families can look forward to every holiday season."

GPPL's Pajama Ball is a free, fun, and festive afternoon event for the whole family. The Pajama Ball will conclude with a pajama-themed concert from Mary Lambert at 3:00 pm.

"There is something magical about being able to dress up in pajamas for an event. It really appeals to the inner child inside all of us. Besides, what could be cozier than wearing pajamas at the library?" says Kate Renfree, Children's Program Coordinator.

While an invitation is not required to attend the Pajama Ball, those interested can pick one up as a reminder of when the event is happening from the Children's Information Desk starting two weeks prior to the event.

The Children's Department at GPPL plans programs for children of all ages. For more information about the programs offered at GPPL, please visit events.gppl.ca.
